

I find it deplorable that you would want to change the no-call rules. I have to pay for my phone and I feel that in doing so I should be protected from annoying, obnoxious callers from advertisements. I work all day and come home to relax, not to have to listen to more advertisements on my phone! there are too many on tv and the phone is getting as bad. I PAY for my phone--I want the choice to NOT get calls! JAH